The Master of Science in Education Program is offered in a blended format. It is a combination of weekly on-ground and online classes.

Admission requirements for Master of Science in Education:

- Valid initial Connecticut teaching certificate.
- Bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university.
- A minimum grade point average of 2.7 on a 4.0 system.
- Score of 600 or above on the TOEL exam if English is not the primary language.
- A working knowledge of computers (Word, Excel, and PowerPoint) is required.

The applicant must submit:

- Completed application for admission to Graduate Programs, including an addendum relating specifically to application to the Master of Science in Education Program.
- Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate degree work.
- Two letters of recommendation, including a character reference, and an academic reference. [If currently teaching, a reference from a supervising administrator is encouraged.]
- Documentation of passing scores on the Praxis I tests, or official notice of waiver.
- Documentation of passing scores on applicable Praxis II tests.

Graduation Requirements for Master of Science in Education:

- Successfully complete all 30 credit hours.
- Meet all academic regulations as stated in the program catalog.
- Completion of all requirements within seven years of matriculation.
- 3.0 overall GPA on a scale of 4.0. Students receiving a final grade of C- or lower in any course will be required to repeat that course.
- Payment of all tuition and fees.