Happy Anniversary

During the 2010-2011 academic year, the College will celebrate the 85th Anniversary of its founding in 1925 by the Dominican Sisters of Saint Mary of the Springs (now known as the Dominican Sisters of Peace). Keep an eye on your inbox and mailbox for information about the many events planned for this special year.

Tell Us Your Story

As part of the College's 85th Anniversary celebration, we are collecting stories of what the College has meant to alumni, its impact and how it has helped to shape lives. What has an Albertus education meant to you? We hope to hear from alumni of all programs, and will use as many stories as possible in various publications during the coming year. Send your story to alumni@albertus.edu. If you've already responded to the request for stories in the recent alumni survey, we thank you for sharing your Albertus experience.

Constitution Day

This year's observance of Constitution Day features two events. On September 14, Brandt Goldstein, author of "The Storming of the Court: How a Band of Lawyers Sued the President and Won," will speak on the constitutional issues of the case in which 300 Haitian refugees who were eligible for political asylum in the U.S. were detained at Guantanamo Bay. The book chronicles the efforts of a group of Yale Law School students to secure the release of the refugees. Goldstein's talk is titled "Why the Constitution Needs You -- Now!" and will take place at 11:15 a.m. in the Atrium of the Tagliatela Academic Center.

On November 3, Ali Zaheer, a doctoral candidate in history at Columbia University, will speak on Malcolm X, the Civil Rights Movement and the Constitution. His research centers on twentieth-century African-American history and religion. The talk will be at noon in the Atrium of the Tagliatela Academic Center. Watch for details.
