SCIENCE AVOCATE EVELYN GARRITY DIES IN VERMONT

Alumna, teacher, administrator, civil rights activist and advocate for science at Albertus, Dr. Evelyn Garrity died Sunday, February 7, at home in her beloved Vermont. She graduated from Albertus in 1948; a chemistry major here, she went on to earn a master's and a doctorate from Fordham University, also in chemistry. Known as Sister Simon Peter, O.P., when she taught at Albertus from 1960 to 1969, Dr. Garrity then spent 11 years at Jackson State University in Mississippi, becoming passionately involved in the civil rights movement. After retirement from SUNY-Old Westbury, where she taught and later served as dean of instruction, she accepted an invitation to return to Albertus as chair of the science department to direct the development and renewal of science at the College. She was professor emerita of science, and in 2005 she received the honorary Doctor of Humane Letters from Albertus.
