The Poet Among Us

The New Yorker Prints Rafferty Poem

Charles Rafferty, director of the College's Master of Fine Arts in Writing program, had his poem "The Man Explains His Souvenirs" published in the January 17 issue of The New Yorker (http://www.newyorker.com/fiction/poetry/2011/01/17/110117po_poem_rafferty) Rafferty received his M.F.A. in Creative Writing from the University of Arkansas; he has written four books of poetry, and his work has appeared in several anthologies. The Albertus program, the first no residency M.F.A. in Connecticut, combines its on-line format with three Saturdays per semester of intensive classroom sessions and writing workshops on the New Haven campus.

Reunion 2011

Calling All Classes Ending in 1 and 6

If your year of graduation ends on 1 or 6, you have a milestone reunion coming up on June 10 and 11. All graduates are invited back to campus to join the celebration. The weekend kicks off with a Friday night gathering in the House of Bollstadt, which will include refreshments, music and Karaoke. Saturday's events include a buffet luncheon, campus tours, open dorms, Alumni College session on building your own personal brand, presentation of the prestigious Alumni of the Year and Premier Achievement awards, induction of alumnae celebrating their 50th reunion into The Golden Society, buffet dinner and lots more. Now is the time to check out the local hotels that will be offering special Albertus Reunion rates to alumni. Be sure to review the Missing Alumni list for your class, and let us know if you have an address for someone who is listed. Get more information
