A Celebration of Emily Dickinson

On October 18 in the Learning Commons of the Library at Rosary Hall, the Albertus community celebrated the poetry of Emily Dickinson. Students, faculty and staff read aloud their poems by Dickinson. Bob Hubbard gave a short talk on Dickinson, including views of her home in Amherst, Massachusetts. This year marks the 125th anniversary of her death.

Act2 Theatre Presents...

That Demon Barber of Fleet Street, Sweeney Todd, is taking up residence at Act2 Theatre in November. With music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, "Sweeney Todd, the Demon Barber of Fleet Street," won eight Tony awards in 1979, including Best Musical, Best Actress in a Musical (Angela Lansbury) and Best Actor in a Musical (Len Cariou). Al DeFabio, artistic and managing director of Act2, notes that the show is "thrilling, romantic, macabre, sophisticated and funny. The audience will be laughing one moment and gasping in horror the next." He chose to do "Sweeney Todd" because "it has a score of epic proportions." DeFabio says that the "talent Act2 has assembled during the past year made choosing to do Sweeney with its many challenges an easy choice to make. Tickets are on sale now and reservations are strongly recommended." Performances are November 4, 5, 12, 13, 18, 19 and 20. Click here for info

The St. Thomas Aquinas Lecture Series

The St. Thomas Aquinas Lecture Series is made possible by the Marie Louise Bianchi '31 Fund. The series is named in honor of St. Thomas Aquinas, a scholar and member of the Dominican order, who left behind a treasure of knowledge and inquiry. Since its founding in 1925, by the Dominican Sisters, the College has cherished its Dominican tradition and Catholic heritage through the pursuit of truth in all its dimensions. All St. Thomas Aquinas Lectures will take place from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the Devaney Lecture Hall, located in Aquinas Hall on the main campus.

The series begins November 7 with Understanding the actions of Jesus through the lens of Taoism. Scott Steinkerchner, O.P., associate director of The Center for Dominican Studies at Ohio Dominican University and the promoter of the internet for the Order of Preachers. ## Around the World with Albertus

Heading to Washington, D.C., to check out national historic sites? Enjoying the beauty of the Tour Eiffel in Paris? Climbing to the top of one of the Yucatan's Mayan temples? Taking in a beautiful autumn day in your home state? Wear an Albertus tee shirt or sweatshirt and have your photo taken in front of a landmark, then send the photo to alumni@albertus.edu. We will post your photo in the December online edition of From the Hill, the alumni newspaper. We want the world to know about our amazing Small College with Big Ideas.
