

COLLEGE COMMEMORATES 9/11

The College commemorated the 10th anniversary of September 11 and marked Constitution Day on September 6 with several events — including seminars, creation of a mural symbolizing hope rising from destruction, a tree planting and talks. Classes were suspended from 9:55 a.m. to 2:50 p.m. so that the Albertus Community could come together for prayer, reflection and remembrance.

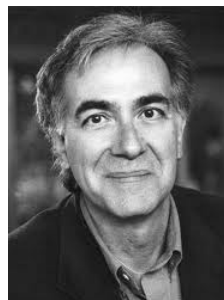

“WE THE

Carolyn Behan Kraus '86 Appointed Vice President

Carolyn Behan Kraus '86, associate vice president for development and alumni relations, has been appointed to the new position of vice president for development and alumni relations, taking on additional advancement and leadership responsibilities. As chief development officer, she will oversee and direct the development and fundraising activities crucial to the College's future;

she will continue to serve as the principal liaison to the alumni community. A former high school art teacher, she received a Master of Arts in Liberal Studies degree from Wesleyan University, and has served in a variety of administrative roles here at Albertus over two decades.

Prize-winning Author to Speak on Campus

Carlos Eire, National Book Award recipient in 2003 for his memoir “Waiting for Snow in Havana: Confessions of a Cuban Boy” will speak on Thursday, October 13 to members of the College and New Haven communities; alumni are invited to join the conversation. The title of

PEOPLE: AN ARTIST'S RESPONSE

A postcard art show drew submissions from the Albertus Community and artists around the country. Entries explore the impact of the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights on the lives of people living in the United States post 9/11. The exhibition remains on view in the Learning Commons at Rosary Hall through September.

RIBBON CUTTING:

Students, faculty, staff and Trustees, all wielding scissors, cut the ribbon to officially open the new turf surface athletic field.

OPEN HOUSE Do you know an adult who has been thinking about finishing or starting an undergraduate degree? The Open House for the undergraduate accelerated degree program in the School of Evening and Graduate Programs, on Wednesday, September 21, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. in Aquinas Hall, can answer all his or her questions. For details, or to make a reservation, your friend can call 203-773-6997 or 203-773-8536; click here to register online.

ALUMNI
CHAPTERS

his talk is "Waiting for Snow, Learning to Die:

Confessions of a Wayward Historian," his second memoir, appeared in 2010. Eire is the T. Lawrason Riggs Professor of History and Religious Studies at Yale University; the professorship is named for the Reverend Riggs, who was a member of the original faculty at Albertus and the first chaplain for Catholic students at Yale. The talk takes place at 11:10 a.m. in the Tagliatela Academic Center. Light lunch will be available. Make reservations at alumni@albertus.edu.

Save the Date

See all the fun we had last year!

15TH ANNUAL FALL FEST

Friday:

Athletic Hall of Fame Dinner

Saturday:

Fall Fest

Panel on the Latino Experience in Connecticut

As part of the Tagliatela Business and Leadership Lecture Series: Honoring our Diversity, the College will present a panel discussion on the Latino Experience in Connecticut on September 29, in honor of Hispanic Heritage Month (September 15-October 15). The panel features Nilvio Perez, director of admission at Albertus; Ulysses Arrigoitia, vice president and general manager, Univision/Telefuturo; and Albertus student Margarita Brown '13. Dr. Christine Atkins, assistant professor of foreign languages and director of the Honors Program, will moderate. The program takes place in the Tagliatela Academic Center at 11:10 a.m.; light lunch will be available. Alumni are invited, and can make reservations at alumni@albertus.edu.

New Award Named to Honor Sr. Charles Marie Brantl, O.P.

The Department of Business Administration, Management and Sport Management has established the Sr. Charles Marie Brantl Academic Excellence Award. The award honors the many years of leadership, service,

COAST TO COAST

The Albertus Alumni Chapter of California will hold its first meet and greet on Saturday, October 1 in Marina Del Rey. The East Shore (CT) Alumni Chapter is opening its fall bus trip on Saturday, November 5, to New York City to graduates and friends of the College. Click here for all the details on each Chapter's event.

guidance, vision and commitment to Albertus by Sr. Charles, who retired at the end of the last academic year. It will be given annually to a department student who demonstrates academic leadership, service and commitment.

Unsubscribe <<Email Address>> from this list.

Copyright (C) 2011 Albertus Magnus College Office of Alumni Relations All rights reserved.

Forward this email to a friend

Update your profile